Headline:
Dry and less cold today with some sunshine.

Today:
A cold, dry and frosty start to the morning, but plenty of early sunshine on offer. Turning cloudier by the afternoon, but remaining dry with bright or sunny intervals. Feeling less cold with lighter winds than of late. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry and cold with clear spells this evening leading to a widespread early frost. Turning cloudier later in the night with some patchy rain developing across the Peaks. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Thursday:
Mostly cloudy through the morning with some occasional rain; this mainly over western hills. Rather breezy by the afternoon, but sunny spells developing and feeling milder in many places. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Colder, but sunnier conditions developing on Friday and Saturday with some wintry showers. Drier on Sunday though probably cloudier. Breezy around coasts. Widespread overnight frosts likely.
